A CHRISTMAS REPRISE

The Church's celebration three weeks ago of the Baptism of the Lord signaled the "official" end of the Christmas season. Today's feast of the Presentation of the Lord seems to extend the Incarnation celebration a bit longer. In fact, some have called this feast a "second Epiphany." The first reading recalls the anticipation of Advent, as Malachi writes, "Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me." The reading from Hebrews reminds us of the Incarnation, proclaiming that Jesus had a "share" in our own "blood and flesh." The Gospel finds the infant Jesus on his first visit to Jerusalem and his human parents once again surprised and in awe over the events surround his birth. In the simplicity of the manger, in the grandeur of the temple, in the domesticity of Nazareth, Jesus comes. May we come to know him and so be filled with "wisdom" and the "favor of God."

2014 THEME: "CIVIL RIGHTS IN AMERICA"

To commemorate and celebrate the contributions to our nation made by people of African descent, American historian Carter G. Woodson established Black History Week. The first celebration occurred on Feb. 12, 1926. For many years, the second week of February was set aside for this celebration to coincide with the birthdays of abolitionist/editor Frederick Douglass and Abraham Lincoln. In 1976, as part of the nation's bicentennial, the week was expanded into Black History Month. Each year, U.S. presidents proclaim February as National African-American History Month. 2014 marks the 50th anniversary of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Passage of the act opened the door for women and racial and ethnic minorities to have fair access to employment opportunities. The act also ended Jim Crow laws enforcing racial segregation in public facilities. Passage of the act was a victory for the thousands of Americans who campaigned, marched, protested, boycotted, and devoted or even risked their lives in the cause of equality. The passage of the Voting Rights Act in 1965 continued the movement.

Reflection about the legal and social victories accomplished during the civil rights movement evokes reflection about the present state of equality and justice in the United States. As we face similar issues today, how do we continue to advance justice and realize the dream?

DIRECTIVES FOR THE FLU SEASON FOR MINISTERS, ALTAR SERVERS AND PARISHIONERS IN LITURGICAL CELEBRATIONS

Remember, God's People are excused from attending Mass if they are ill with the flu or have reason to believe that they have flu-like symptoms.

1. Do NOT come to Mass when you have flu-like symptoms.
2. Do NOT bring sick children to Mass or to school.
3. Wash your hands before and after touching your eyes, face or mouth.
4. Those who must care for a sick family member at home, or who reasonably fear they will spread a flu virus if they leave home are also excused from Mass.
5. We DISCOURAGE distribution of the Host on the tongue until this flu epidemic has passed. Doing so can contaminate the entire ciborium if a finger touches an infected person on the tongue or mouth, and then returns to the ciborium.

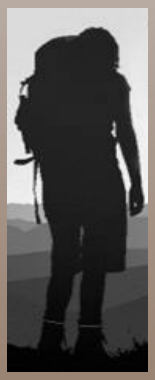
Teen Gospel Reflection

In modern society it is so easy to simply click follow on Twitter or Instagram. "Following" someone just takes the push of a button – no dedication, no requirements, no inconvenience. With the world's shifting standards, it's hard to stay focused on the truth behind following Christ. He calls upon us to leave our comfortable lives and step into the unknown. It's a tough lifestyle, a great challenge, and a long journey to strive for.



Following Jesus is picking up the heavy backpack and taking the first step up the mountain. I often struggle with asking Christ to give me another rock to make my backpack a burden, but Jesus asked for my sins to burden him. Did my sin cause Him to fall over and over? Did my sin cause the soldiers to whip Him one extra time? Why did I harm an innocent man? At times, I've found myself lost from Jesus, my compass. But that's why the northern star was created. To always guide the way to Jesus. We cannot remain lukewarm. After all, lukewarm water eventually turns cold.

REFLECTIONS

One of the key themes of the Feast of the Presentation is recognition. The Gospel is the simple story of how Simeon and Anna, by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, were able to recognize Jesus as the long awaited Messiah. Simeon had been promised that he would not die until he had seen the Anointed One of God. With Jesus in his arms, Simeon proclaims: "Now master you can dismiss your servant in peace; you have fulfilled your word. For my eyes have witnessed your saving deed, displayed for all the people to see." However, Simeon goes on to say that there will be those who do not recognize and accept Jesus as the Messiah. Simeon tells Mary: "This child is destined to be the downfall and the rise of many in Israel, a sign that will be opposed." Today, as we take part in this celebration of recognition, we are invited, along with Simeon and Anna, to recognize Jesus Christ in our midst. Unfortunately, we do not have a month-old Christ child to look at, touch and hold. But the same spirit that prompted Simeon and Anna to recognize Jesus 2000 years ago, prompts us today to recognize Jesus in this Eucharist as we receive the Real Presence of Christ in His body and blood.

RETORNO A LA NAVIDAD

La celebración de hace tres semanas del Bautismo del Señor señaló el fin "oficial" del tiempo de Navidad para la Iglesia. La fiesta de hoy de la Presentación del Señor parece extender la celebración un poco más allá. En realidad, algunos han nombrado esta fiesta una "Segunda Epifanía". La primera lectura nos recuerda la anticipación del Adviento, como escribe Malaquías: "Envío a mi mensajero para que prepare el camino ante mí". La lectura de los Hebreos nos recuerda la Encarnación, proclamando que Jesús tuvo una "parte" de la misma "carne y sangre". El Evangelio encuentra al niño Jesús en su primera visita a Jerusalén, y a sus padres una vez más sorprendidos y asombrados por los acontecimientos de su nacimiento. En la sencillez del pesebre, en la grandeza del templo, en la domesticidad de Nazaret, Jesús viene. ¡Que lleguemos a conocerlo y por ello nos encontremos llenos de "sabiduría" y de la "gracia de Dios!" "DERECHOS CIVILES EN AMERICA" TEMA DEL 2014. Para conmemorar y celebrar las contribuciones a nuestra nación hecha por personas de ascendencia Africana, el historiador estadounidense Carter G. Woodson estableció la semana de Black History Week. La primera celebración se llevo acabo el 12 de febrero de 1926. Durante muchos años, la segunda semana de febrero había sido reservada a esta celebración para coincidir con los cumpleaños del editor/abolicionista Frederick Douglass y Abraham Lincoln. En 1976, como parte del Bicentenario de la nación, la semana fue ampliada al mes Black History Month. Cada año, los presidentes de Estados Unidos proclaman febrero como el mes Nacional de la historia afroamericana. 2014 celebra el 50 aniversario de la Ley de Derechos Civiles de 1964, que prohíbe la discriminación de raza, color, religión, sexo u origen nacional. La aprobación de la Ley abrió la puerta para las mujeres y las minorías raciales y étnicas de tener un acceso equitativo a las oportunidades de empleo. El acto terminó también leyes de Jim Crow de imponer la segregación racial en las instalaciones públicas. La aprobación de la ley fue una victoria para los miles de estadounidenses que en su campaña, marcharon, protestaron, boicotearon y dedicaron o incluso arriesgaron sus vidas por la causa de la igualdad. La aprobación de la Ley de Derechos Electorales de 1965 continuó el movimiento.

Reflexión sobre las victorias legales y sociales logradas durante el movimiento de derechos civiles evoca reflexión sobre el estado actual de la igualdad y la justicia en los Estados Unidos. Como hoy en día nos enfrentamos a problemas similares, ¿cómo seguimos promoviendo la justicia y realizar el sueño?

Oremos por la unidad de los cristianos. ¡Son tantas y tan valiosas las cosas que nos unen! .

@Pontifex_es 27 ene.
Queridos jóvenes, no se conformen con una vida mediocre. Déjense seducir por lo que es verdadero y bueno, por Dios .

@Pontifex_es 25 ene.
Es fácil recurrir a Dios para pedirle, todos lo hacemos. ¿Cuándo aprenderemos también a darle gracias y adorarle?.

Estamos llamados a vivir cada día nuestro Bautismo, como nuevas criaturas, revestidos de Cristo.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El día 2 de febrero la Iglesia universal celebra la Presentación del Niño Jesús en el Templo. La costumbre judía dictaba que 40 días después del parto la madre debía ir al templo para ser purificada y junto con su marido ofrecer su hijito(a) a Dios. En la religion cristiana esta costumbre fue desarrollándose en la presentación de los niños en el templo, dejando en el olvido la purificación de la madre. En Málaga, España, la presentación de los niños se hace el día 2 de febrero cuando todos los niños bautizados durante el último año se presentan en la congregación de la Divina Pastora. En muchas partes de Latinoamérica los niños se presentan a los tres años de edad. Aunque no es un rito oficial de la Iglesia, muchas familias hispanas continúan esta práctica religiosa, presentando su hijo(a) a la comunidad parroquial durante la Misa dominical. El rito es uno de agradecimiento y consagración a Dios. El sacerdote bendice al niño pero es la tarea de los padres educarlos en lo que significa ser consagrado a Dios.

NATIONAL BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Who was: Saint Josephine Bakhita

Saint Josephine Bakhita (born in 1869 in Sudan and died 1947 in Italy), a Canossian Sister and Sudanese slave, was canonized on October 1, 2000 at St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, Italy.

At nine, Josephine Bakhita was kidnapped and sold into slavery, where she was tortured, humiliated, and mutilated by her slave to learn about the Catholic faith from the Daughters of Charity ("Canossian Sisters"), and the tender mercies of gentle God who loved her. Since slavery in Italy was illegal, Bakhita was truly free. She was baptized in January 1890, and took on the name Josephine, and remained in the catechumenate for 4 years. During this time, she could hear the voice of God calling her to religious life. After much prayer and discernment, Josephine joined religious life, and pronounced her vows on December 8, 1896 at the age of 41. Josephine lived a simply life of prayer, until her death at the age 78.
