Mission Statement

The Catholic Christian Community of St. Anthony of Padua welcomes all to our celebrations of God's love. Through prayer, education, sacraments, caring and stewardship, we strive to serve the needs of God's people and to gain a richer understanding of the gospel message of love.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

If you or a family member have a medical emergency and are in need of an anointing, please contact the Spiritual Care Department of the hospital you are in; there is always a priest on call. Sacraments should be requested when a patient is first aware of his/her serious illness. No one should wait until death is imminent and the patient is unconscious.

It is also suggested that the patient receive the anointing before discharge to their home or hospice home. Anointing is an important part of the healing process as it aids physical healing and offers spiritual strength during illness.

PARKING & SAFETY CONCERNS

Please DO NOT park in the marked RED ZONES which are reserved for emergency response teams. Recently there was a medical emergency at the church (on a Sunday); but because so many cars were parked ILLEGALLY - red fire zones - the fire truck was UNABLE to make their turns in our parking lot. Instead, they had to BACK UP to complete their response; causing not only frustration, but precious time as well. We have encountered and been notified by emergency personnel of the problems for emergency access every day of the week. If violations continue there will be FINES filed against the church - which will be VERY COSTLY! Continued parking in the red zones will result in cars being towed at the owners expense.

HOWEVER, WE DO HAVE A SOLUTION! We have ample parking at the school. The gates are located on Maroa and will be open (south of the community center). The walk is very safe and quick - just walk thru campus, then thru our parking lot. Let's practice Christian charity and please park on the school grounds, leaving the church parking lot for those who may have physical limitations. And remember, the next medical emergency might involve you or someone you love!

Please Note:

Our Parish Office will be closed Monday, May 27 in observance of Memorial Day.
We will resume our regular office hours on Tuesday, May 28.
May your holiday be filled with the love of the Holy Spirit and may you find joy with those you love!

MARRIAGE: LOVE AND LIFE IN THE DIVINE PLAN: RELATIVISM

"By attempting to redefine marriage to include or be made analogous with homosexual partnerships, society is stating that the permanent union of husband and wife, the unique pattern of spousal and familial love, and the generation of new life are now only of relative importance rather than being fundamental to the existence and well-being of society as a whole." (Excerpted from the U.S. Bishops' Pastoral Letter entitled Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan. To read the document go to http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/)

PRAYER FOR THE PROTECTION OF MARRIAGE

Heavenly Father, you established marriage as a communion of life and love uniting men and women with each other and any children born from their union. Today, when the meaning of marriage is so misunderstood, and when forces seek to alter the very definition of marriage, we unite our prayers and sacrifices with those of the whole Mystical Body of Christ for the protection of marriage and family.

Imploring the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, we beg you to protect the most innocent among us, our children, from the horrific effects of the breakdown of marriage and an impoverished understanding of love.

Allow us to be instruments of your holy will with our prayers, actions, and love. Raise up vibrant Christian families and bless and protect all those who seek to evangelize culture for marriage and family.

We ask these things in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

La semana pasada celebramos el don del Espíritu Santo concedido a la Iglesia. Las Escrituras de esta semana continúan explorando el don del Espíritu Santo, pero esta vez se enfocan en cómo el don del Espíritu Santo une a la Iglesia con Dios en una santa comunión de amor. En el Evangelio de Juan se nos habla sobre la estrecha relación del Padre y el Hijo. Jesús dice: "Todo lo que tiene el Padre, también es mío" y que el Espíritu nos transmitirá todo lo que tiene Jesús. La carta a los romanos nos ayuda a entender qué es lo que hemos recibido: "Dios ha derramado su amor en nuestros corazones" (Romanos 5:5), el mismo amor que comparten el Padre y el Hijo". Dios no sólo se alegra de estar con nosotros (Ver Proverbios 8, 31), sino que nos cuida y nos corona de gloria y esplendor (Salmo 8:6). Por el Espíritu Santo, Dios nos une en santa comunión al amor eterno de la Santísima Trinidad. Virginia Stillwell Derechos de autor © 2012, World Library Publications. Todos los derechos reservados.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Semana tras semana participamos en el sacramento de la Sagrada Comunión. En este sacramento el Espíritu Santo continúa derramando el amor de Dios en nuestros corazones y une más profundamente a la Iglesia en una santa comunión con el amor de la Santísima Trinidad. ¿Cómo es posible dejar de atraer a otras personas hacia esa santa comunión de amor?

¿Que te impide recibir la Eucaristía?

Domingo a domingo vemos que muchas personas durante la comunión no pasan a recibir la Santa Eucaristía: el cuerpo y la sangre de Jesucristo. Los católicos recibimos la santa eucaristía por que es el fundamento de nuestra fe, es parte de los que somos como Cristianos, es Jesucristo vivo, su Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad. Recibir la Eucaristía (Comunión) es recibir a Jesucristo mismo. Es la esperanza, es lo que nos da la fortaleza en aquel que a dado su vida por nosotros. "Tomen y coman todos de él, porque esto es mi Cuerpo, que será entregado por ustedes. Tomen y beban todos de él, porque éste es el cáliz de mi Sangre, Sangre de la alianza nueva y eterna, que será derramada por ustedes y por muchos para el perdón de los pecados. Hagan esto en conmemoración mía." La próxima ves que vengas a misa y no recibas comunión, pregúntate ¿que me impide recibir a Jesucristo eucaristía?

Bienvenidos! NUEVOS FELIGRESES. Le damos la más cordial bienvenida a todas las familias y personas que nos acompañan en nuestras celebraciones litúrgicas, o que se han mudado recientemente a este vecindario y ahora son parte de esta comunidad de fe. Los invitamos a pasar por la oficina y se inscriban como miembros de St. Anthony of Padua. Es importante que estén registrados en la parroquia, como miembros, para poder servirles mejor!

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
May 26, 2013

Scripture

- …and I found delight in the human race (Proverbs 8:30).
- …You have made them little less than the angels, and crowned them with glory (Psalm 8:5,6)
- the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:1,5)
- Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. (John 16:15)

Reflection

- Is there anything of God that Jesus holds back from you?
- Is God's Love enough? What more do you desire?
- Where do you find God's Love? Who shows the way?

God expects but one thing of you, and that is that you…let God be God in you. (Meister Eckhart)

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD

Last week we celebrated the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church. This week's scriptures continue to explore the gift of the Holy Spirit, but this time they focus on how the gift of the Holy Spirit binds the church to God in a holy communion of love.

In John's Gospel we hear of the closeness of the Father and the Son. Jesus says, "Everything the Father has is mine" and that the Spirit will pass on what Jesus has to us. The Letter to the Romans helps us realize what it is that we have received: The holy love that is shared between Father and Son "has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). Not only does our God "delight in the human race" (Proverbs 8:31), care for us, and crown us with glory and honor (Psalm 8:6); through the gift of the Spirit God binds us in a holy communion to the eternal love of the Trinity. -Virginia Stillwell

Living God's Word

Week after week we partake of the sacrament of Holy Communion. In this sacrament the Holy Spirit continues to pour out God's love into our hearts and bind the church more deeply into holy communion with the love of the Holy Trinity. How can we not reach out to others and draw them into that holy communion of love? Copyright © 2012, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today's feast, extending a dimension of Easter joy into Ordinary Time, reminds us that every aspect of worship centers on the mystery of God in three persons. At baptism, we are initiated into Christ and the Spirit. The Creed we recite at Mass every Sunday has its roots in the ancient celebration of baptism, when a new believer was questioned at the edge of the waters of the font with three questions: Do you believe in God, the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit? Three questions, three affirmations, three immersions into the saving waters. Because every liturgy abounds with references to the Trinity, not only in words but in blessings by the sign of the cross, this feast was not easily accepted into the calendar. Pope Alexander in the eleventh century remarked that the liturgy is so laden with praise of the Trinity that there was no need for a special feast. Two hundred years later, while in exile in France, Pope John XXII proclaimed the feast, but it was not until 1911 that Pope St. Pius X gave it status as a solemnity.

A favorite image in art for today is the Icon of the Trinity, showing three glorious winged men seated at a table laden with bread and a cup of wine. It recalls Abraham's hospitality to angels and gives expression to the inner life of God, a life lived in relationship, a life poured out in abundance whenever Christians gather at the table of the Eucharist to give praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Spirit. —James Field, Copyright © J.
