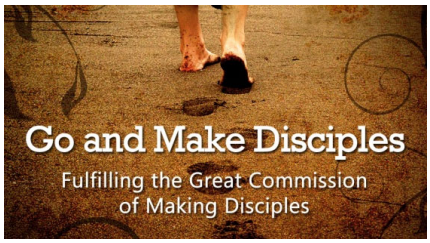
GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES



In his introduction to the writings of St. Bernard of Clairvaux, Jean Leclercq writes that the mystery of the Ascension fulfilled the mystery of love in which Jesus returns to the glory of the Father. The Son then sends the Spirit to unite us with the Father in love. Thus, in Bernard's thought, the Ascension is a symbol for the passage of Christ from his life in mortal flesh to glorious life in the Spirit. This same transition from flesh to Spirit can also be accomplished in us, since it has already taken place in Christ. But we are not simply passive recipients. There is work to be done. Luke's angels bluntly tell the apostles to get moving. Matthew's final scene spells out the work: "Go forth and make disciples, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and teaching others to observe all that I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:19). Witness to Jesus, in word and deed. The task of spreading the good news that is Jesus Christ, teaching others about him, can seem daunting. But we are not alone. We have the promise that the Holy Spirit will work with us; in Matthew, Jesus' final words are reassuring: "I am with you always" (28:20). That is reason enough to work with confidence. James A. TEEN GOSPEL REFLECTION

"Go and make disciples of all nations." Jesus is not only telling the eleven disciples to go and spread the word of God and to baptize people in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit but he is telling all of us to go and spread the word of God. Even though the disciples doubted when they were on the mountain we know that they went and spread the word of God. This is exactly what you and I should go do. Spread the word. Saying you are going to go and spread the word is easier than actually taking action. I find that I am afraid of what my friends will think because they aren't Catholic and don't always understand my faith. Being known as the "holy girl" isn't always easy but because I know that Jesus is with me, so I can live my faith boldly. As I grow more confident in my faith, I find myself telling people I will pray for them and now I find myself considering religious life. Jesus' call is an adventure, if we are willing to listen. ESTE FIN DE SEMANA!

31 de MAYO & 1 de JUNIO

Las Hermanas Misioneras Carmelitas de Santa Teresa del Niño Jesús de Puebla México, estarán vendiendo artículos religiosos y artesanías después de todas las misas este fin de semana en el Salón de Conferencias.

Les pedimos su ferviente oración y sus generosas donaciones, mismas que serán utilizadas para ayudar a nuestra misión en lugares alejados y marginados. Estamos construyendo un Centro de Pastoral en Olintla Puebla, lugar localizado en lo más profundo de la Sierra Norte de Puebla, a muchas horas de distancia. El uso de esta casa será para que los niños nativos reciban catecismo, una casa de retiros para todos lo que lo necesiten, un lugar para que los más pobres de los pobres reciban los servicios médicos más elementales, brindarles educación a las personas que no saben leer; en pocas palabras, una casa humanitaria donde todos brindemos lo mejor de nosotros mismos para dignificar la creación de Dios.

Por favor ayúdennos. Que Dios les bendiga por la intercesión de Santa Teresa del Nino Jesús Patrona de las misiones.

GRACIAS POR TU GENEROSIDAD!

VAYAN Y HAGAN DISCÍPULOS

En la presentación de los escritos de san Bernardo de Claraval, Jean Leclercq dice que en el misterio de la Ascensión se consumió el misterio de amor por el cual Jesús regresa a la gloria del Padre. Entonces el Hijo envía el Espíritu Santo para unirnos al Padre en el amor. Por tanto, según san Bernardo, la Ascensión es un símbolo del paso o la Pascua de Cristo de su vida mortal a la vida gloriosa en el Espíritu. Esta misma transición de vida mortal a la vida en el Espíritu puede también cumplirse en nosotros, pues ya se ha cumplido en Cristo. Pero nosotros no somos simplemente unos receptores pasivos. Hay trabajo que hacer. Los ángeles de Lucas les dicen sin rodeos a los discípulos que se pongan en marcha. La escena final de Mateo recalca bien el trabajo a hacer: "Vayan y hagan discípulos a todos los pueblos y bautícenlos para consagrarlos al Padre, al Hijo y al Espíritu Santo, enseñándoles a poner por obra todo lo que les he mandado" (Mateo 28:19). Den testimonio de Jesús tanto de palabra como de obra.

La tarea de difundir la buena nueva, que es Jesucristo, y enseñarle a otras personas acerca de él, puede parecer sobrecogedora. Pero no estamos solos. Tenemos la promesa de que el Espíritu Santo trabajará con nosotros; así lo aseguran las últimas palabras de Jesús en Mateo: "Estoy con ustedes todos los días hasta el final de los tiempos" (28:20). Ésa es razón suficiente para trabajar confiadamente. James A. Wallace, C.Ss.R.
