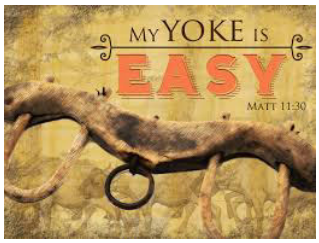
SIDE BY SIDE



"Come to me, all you who labor" (Matthew 11:28). When we are overburdened, weary, confused, or sick Jesus' invitation is music to our ears, except for a small hitch. Jesus says, "Take my yoke upon you" (Matthew 11:29). How does this give rest to our souls? For generations, farmers have yoked young plough animals alongside experienced ones. The experienced animal trains the other by example. An older and weaker animal may likewise be yoked to one in its prime, so the stronger partner takes on the strain. Jesus invites us to take on his yoke so he can walk with us, helping us to do things his way. He promised never to leave us to "pull" alone. When it all gets too much or we lose our way, he will be there beside us—gentle, humble, but infinitely powerful and wise. At times when we are strong, we in turn can yoke ourselves to someone who needs that extra pull to get to firmer ground.

Ordinary Time: A Sense of the Season

What do the words Ordinary Time mean? Dorothy Day said, "The words 'Ordinary Time' in our prayer books put me in a state of confusion and irritation. To me, no time is ordinary." She was right. The Ordinary in "Ordinary Time" refers to ordinal—counted—time, not to a lack of something to celebrate. The Roman document, General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar, says: "Apart from those seasons having their own distinctive character [Advent, Christmas time, Lent, Triduum and Easter time], 33 or 34 weeks remain in the yearly cycle that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ. Rather, especially on the Sundays, they are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects." How do we celebrate "the mystery of Christ in all its aspects"? We gather every Sunday. Sunday is our original feast day. Christians have gathered every Sunday—the day of Christ's resurrection, the first day of the week—ever since there were Christians. When we gather on Sundays in Ordinary Time, as always, we hear the scriptures proclaimed. We do our Eucharist; that is, we do our thanksgiving. We praise and thank God for all creation; we pray for the whole world, as we remember Christ's life, death and resurrection. We share the bread and wine, the body and blood. We are sent forth to be the body and blood of Christ in our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, our towns, our cities, our country, our world. "What happens in our churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. What happens as the fruit of the week past is the beginning of the week to come. Sunday is simultaneously a point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the kingdom. This is not ordinary at all. This is the fabric of Christian living." TEEN GOSPEL REFLECTION

This is a passage about Jesus' true passion for living life for his Heavenly Father. He hopes to pass on His love to those who come to him with burdens so that they may be happy. Jesus Christ is our savior and will continue to be forever. This is why I pray to Him for help when

I have my own burdens. I am relieved when I read this Gospel because I know that I don't have to carry these burdens alone. I feel a lot of pressure from my parents, school, and coaches. I feel even more pressure now I'm starting to look at colleges. I also feel a lot of pressure from friends to drink or to party. I need to remember that giving my burdens to God will help me truly be happy and at peace.

PILGRIM VIRGIN STATUE

At Fatima in Portugal in 1917 Mary appeared to three children several times. She urged them to pray the Rosary in sorrow for sin, and for the conversion of sinners to a better way of life. In the reign of Pope Pius XII, the custom developed of having a statue of Our Lady of Fatima carried from place to place to encourage people to respond to Mary's request by praying the Rosary, as we have such a statue. If you'd like to have her in your home for a week, please contact the Office of Ministries at: 439-0124 ext.105 or 112.

Let us pray for the Christian communities in the Middle East, that they may continue to live in the land where Christianity was born.

The Latin Mass community is looking for men who would like to learn Gregorian Chant and join our men's schola. The schola assists the priest during high Masses by chanting parts of the mass using the beautiful ancient melodies of the Church. The gentlemen rehearse on Thursdaynights for about two hours and independently during the week. Previous experience with Gregorian Chant is not necessary, but some previous musical experience is helpful. For more information email Mr. Royce Nickel at rnickel@cvip.net.

"Vengan a mí, los que van cansados, llevando pesadas cargas y yo los aliviaré" (Mateo 11:28). Cuando nos sentimos sobrecargados, cansados, confusos o enfermos la invitación de Jesús nos suena como hermosa melodía. Otras personas parecen sobrellevar mejor las cosas que nosotros y nos preguntamos cuál es su secreto. La promesa de encontrar descanso en Jesús suena muy dulce, excepto por una pequeña coletilla, pues Jesús también dice: "Carguen con mi yugo" (Mateo 11:29). ¿Cómo puede esto darle descanso a nuestro espíritu? Por muchas generaciones, los agricultores han puesto juntos, en una yunta, a un animal joven con otro de más experiencia. Este último entrena al otro con su ejemplo. Igualmente pueden poner a un animal mayor y más débil junto con otro fuerte, para que este último sea el que lleve el peso. Jesús nos invita a tomar su yugo a fin de poder caminar junto a nosotros, ayudándonos a hacer las cosas según su ejemplo. Él prometió nunca dejarnos para que tengamos que "tirar" solos de la yunta. Cuando el todo se convierta en demasiado o cuando perdamos el camino, él estará ahí junto a nosotros, con su mansedumbre y humildad, pero también con su infinito poder y su sabiduría. Y en esos momentos en que nos sentimos más fuertes podemos ponernos en yunta con alguien que necesita un empujoncito para alcanzar una tierra más firme. Copyright © 2010, World Library Publications. TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Toda devoción mariana debe seguir los pasos de Cristo. Y todo lo que decimos acerca de María deberíamos decirlo de nosotros como Iglesia, porque ella es nuestra madre, hermana y modelo. Si Jesús es el Hijo de Dios, María y nosotros también somos hijos e hijas de Dios. Si Jesús tiene un Sagrado Corazón que arde por amor al humano, María tiene un corazón inmaculado que arde con ese mismo amor. ¿Y nosotros? La devoción al Inmaculado Corazón de María fue promovida por el Papa Pío XII en 1942, durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial. El Papa pidió a María tres gracias para los fieles en Cristo: amor a la pureza, práctica de la vida cristiana y celo apostólico. De esta manera nuestro corazón puede llegar a ser como el de ella. El corazón inmaculado de María es un corazón que no tiene mancha de pecado. Es un corazón que imita el Sagrado Corazón de su Hijo y Dios, Jesús. Es recuerdo de lo que nuestros corazones pueden ser. Es invitación a que nos vayamos purificando y creciendo en amor ardiente por el prójimo. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

ORACION DE LOS ESPOSOS Y LA FAMILIA

Señor: Haz de nuestro hogar un sitio de Tu amor que no haya injuria, porque Tú nos das comprensión. Que no haya amargura porque Tú nos bendices. Que no haya egoísmos porque Tú nos alientas a dar. Que no haya rencor porque Tú nos das el perdón. Que no haya abandono porque Tú estás con nosotros. Que sepamos marchar hacia Tí en nuestro diario vivir. Que cada mañana amanezca un día más de entrega y sacrificio. Que cada noche nos encuentres con más amor de esposos. Haz Señor de nuestras vidas que quisiste unir, una página llena de tí. Haz Señor de nuestros hijos lo que tú anhelas; ayúdanos a educar, a orientar por tu camino. Que nos esforcemos en el consuelo mutuo. Que hagamos del amor un motivo para amarte más. Que demos lo mejor de nosotros para ser felices en el hogar. Que cuando amanezca el gran día de ir a tu encuentro, nos concedas el hallarnos para siempre en tí. Amén.
