

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Thanksgiving Day is not only a day of preparing a meal to share with our families; it is also a day when we need to pause and take some time to give thanks to God for His many blessings. Realizing how busy and hectic our schedules can be on Thanksgiving Day, we will, once again, have a Vigil Mass for Thanksgiving Day. That Mass will be celebrated on Wednesday, November 26th at 6:00pm. We will also bless the bread and wine that you will be serving on Thanksgiving, which will only be done at the Vigil Mass. Prior to the beginning of Mass, please place your bread and wine in the baskets near the altar. And again, please remember to mark your wine bottles. After all, we wouldn't want anyone to, accidentally, walk in with "Ripple" and leave with "Rothschild's". This Mass, again, is being instituted for your convenience, to make it easier for you to say "Thank You" to our God, who has been so very generous to all of us.

Praying with Body, Mind, and Voice

In the celebration of Mass we raise our hearts and minds to God. We are creatures of body as well as spirit, so our prayer is not confined to our minds and hearts. It is expressed by our bodies as well. When our bodies are engaged in our prayer, we pray with our whole person. Using our entire being in prayer helps us to pray with greater attentiveness. During Mass we assume different postures—standing, kneeling, sitting—and we are also invited to make a variety of gestures. These postures and gestures are not merely ceremonial. They have profound meaning and, when done with understanding, can enhance our participation in the Mass.

STANDING

Standing is a sign of respect and honor, so we stand as the celebrant who represents Christ enters and leaves the assembly. From the earliest days of the Church, this posture has been understood as the stance of those who have risen with Christ and seek the things that are above. When we stand for prayer, we assume our full stature before God, not in pride but in humble gratitude for the marvelous things God has done in creating and redeeming each one of us. By Baptism we have been given a share in the life of God, and the posture of standing is an acknowledgment of this wonderful gift. We stand for the proclamation of the Gospel, which recounts the words and deeds of the Lord. The bishops of the United States have chosen standing as the posture to be observed for the reception of Communion.

KNEELING

In the early Church, kneeling signified penance. So thoroughly was kneeling identified with penance that the early Christians were forbidden to kneel on Sundays and during the Easter season, when the prevailing spirit of the Liturgy was one of joy and thanksgiving. In the Middle Ages kneeling came to signify homage, and more recently this posture has come to signify adoration, especially before the presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It is for this reason that the bishops of this country have chosen the posture of kneeling for the entire Eucharistic Prayer.

SITTING

Sitting is the posture of listening and meditation, so the congregation sits for the pre-Gospel readings and the homily and may also sit for the period of meditation following Communion. All should strive to assume a seated posture during the Mass that is attentive rather than merely at rest.

PROCESSIONS

Every procession in the Liturgy is a sign of the pilgrim Church, the body of those who believe in Christ, on their way to the Heavenly Jerusalem. The Mass begins with the procession of the priest and ministers to the altar. The Book of the Gospels is carried in procession to the ambo. The gifts of bread and wine are brought forward to the altar. Members of the assembly come forward in procession—eagerly, attentively, and devoutly—to receive Holy Communion. We who believe in Christ are moving in time toward that moment when we will leave this world and enter into the joy of the Lord in the eternal Kingdom he has prepared for us.

MAKING THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

We begin and end Mass by marking ourselves with the Sign of the Cross. Because it was by his death on the Cross that Christ redeemed humankind, we trace the Sign of the Cross on our foreheads, lips, and hearts at the beginning of the Gospel, praying that the Word of God may be always in our minds, on our lips, and in our hearts. The cross reminds us in a physical way of the Paschal Mystery we celebrate: the death and Resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ.

BOWING

Bowing signifies reverence, respect, and gratitude. In the Creed we bow at the words that commemorate the Incarnation. We also bow as a sign of reverence before we receive Communion. The priest and other ministers bow to the altar, a symbol of Christ, when entering or leaving the sanctuary. As a sign of respect and reverence even in our speech, we bow our heads at the name of Jesus, at the mention of the Three Persons of the Trinity, at the name of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and at the name of the saint whose particular feast or memorial is being observed (see GIRM, no. 275).

GENUFLECTING

As a sign of adoration, we genuflect by bringing our right knee to the floor. Many people also make the Sign of the Cross as they bend their knee. Traditionally, Catholics genuflect on entering and leaving church if the Blessed Sacrament is present in the sanctuary of the Church. The priest and deacon genuflect to the tabernacle on entering and leaving the sanctuary. The priest also genuflects in adoration after he shows the Body and Blood of Christ to the people after the consecration and again before inviting the people to Holy Communion.

ORANS

The priest frequently uses this ancient prayer posture, extending his hands to his sides, slightly elevated. Orans means “praying.” Early Christian art frequently depicts the saints and others standing in this posture, offering their prayers and surrendering themselves, with hands uplifted to the Lord, in a gesture that echoes Christ’s outstretched arms as he offered himself on the Cross.

PROSTRATING

In this rarely used posture, an individual lies full-length on the floor, face to the ground. A posture of deep humility, it signifies our willingness to share in Christ’s death so as to share in his Resurrection (see Rom 6). It is used at the beginning of the Celebration of the Lord’s Passion on Good Friday and also during the Litany of the Saints in the Rite of Ordination, when those to be ordained deacons, priests, and bishops prostrate themselves in humble prayer and submission to Christ.

SINGING

"By its very nature song has both an individual and a communal dimension. Thus, it is no wonder that singing together in church expresses so well the sacramental presence of God to his people" (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Sing to the Lord, no. 2). As we raise our voices as one in the prayers, dialogues, and chants of the Mass, most especially in the Eucharistic Prayer, as well as the other hymns and songs, we each lend our individual voices to the great hymn of praise and thanksgiving to the Triune God.

PRAYING IN UNISON

In the Mass, the worshipping assembly prays in one voice, speaking or singing together the words of the prayers. By saying the same words at the same time, we act as what we truly are—one Body united in Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism.

BEING SILENT

"Silence in the Liturgy allows the community to reflect on what it has heard and experienced, and to open its heart to the mystery celebrated" (Sing to the Lord, no. 118). We gather in silence, taking time to separate ourselves from the concerns of the world and enter into the sacred action. We reflect on the readings in silence. We may take time for silent reflection and prayer after Holy Communion. These times of silence are not merely times when nothing happens; rather, they are opportunities for us to enter more deeply in what God is doing in the Mass, and, like Mary, to keep "all these things, reflecting on them" in our hearts (Lk 2:19).

CONCLUSION

The Church sees in these common postures and gestures both a symbol of the unity of those who have come together to worship and also a means of fostering that unity. We are not free to change these postures to suit our own individual piety, for the Church makes it clear that our unity of posture and gesture is an expression of our participation in the one Body formed by the baptized with Christ, our head. When we stand, kneel, sit, bow, and sign ourselves in common action, we give unambiguous witness that we are indeed the Body of Christ, united in body, mind, and voice.

Thank You, Thank You, Generous God!

Thank You, thank You, thank You, generous God!
 You have injected life with joy, thus we know laughter.
 You have dabbled creation with color, thus we enjoy beauty.
 You have whistled a divine tune into the rhythm of life,
 thus we hear music.

You have filled our minds with questions,
 thus we appreciate mystery.
 You have entered our hearts with compassion,
 thus we experience faith.

Thank You, God, Thank You. Thank You!

MARRIAGE MATTERS

From Christ's love for his bride, the Church, we learn attitudes and behaviors that express true love and give us joy. These are: the willingness to welcome and accept each other, the perseverance to keep our promises, the generosity to give unselfishly, the humility to forgive and ask for forgiveness, the compassion to console, and the eagerness to serve God and one another. How are these attitudes and behaviors present in your relationship?

An Act of Love

O my God, I love you above all things, with my whole heart and soul, because you are all-good and worthy of all love. I love my neighbor as myself for the love of you. I forgive all who have injured me, and I ask pardon of all whom I have injured.

Amen.

Scripture

- The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, (Ezekiel 34:16)
- Beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. (Psalm 23:2)
- For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.' (Matthew 25:35)

Reflection

- What saints have been Christ to others?
- What individuals in our own time are Christ to others?
- Have you ever witnessed someone being Christ to others?
- How could you be Christ to others?
- What ministries in your parish exist for this purpose?

A KING LIKE NO OTHER

We have not elected God as president, and God's creation is not made up of registered voters. There are no referendums on God's will, and no chance of recalling God in favor of another leader. Consequently, the idea of God as Lord and King will always seem strange to us in our democratic, individualistic society. Jesus experienced personally the oppressive nature of kings, emperors, and other rulers—think of Herod and Pontius Pilate. In contrast to them, he linked his status as king to humble service, and instructed his followers to be servants, too. When we celebrate Christ as King, we are celebrating a ruler willing to do anything for his beloved people, and whose loving-kindness endures forever.

In the scriptures, Jesus' kingdom is inseparably tied to his suffering. King of all creation, he humbled himself to become human, even sharing the ultimate fate of his subjects: death. The King of the world, brutalized and crowned with thorns, hanging naked on a cross of shame, set us free from our bondage to sin and death. The Lord of glory made this ultimate self-sacrifice purely out of love for us. He is Lord, King, and Judge, but he does not judge by human standards, so his justice is not mere punishment. He looks deep into all our hearts, where nothing is hidden from him.

His justice is intended to lead to our repentance and ultimate salvation. We believe that "he will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end." The scriptures tell us that the Father delays the return of the Son so that all of us have the opportunity to repent. Christ our King offers us true freedom as the beloved sons and daughters of God.

PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Mary's presentation was celebrated in Jerusalem in the sixth century. A church was built there in honor of this mystery. The Eastern Church was more interested in the feast, but it does appear in the West in the 11th century. Although the feast at times disappeared from the calendar, in the 16th century it became a feast of the universal Church.

As with Mary's birth, we read of Mary's presentation in the temple only in apocryphal literature. In what is recognized as an unhistorical account, the Protoevangelium of James tells us that Anna and Joachim offered Mary to God in the Temple when she was three years old. This was to carry out a promise made to God when Anna was still childless.

Though it cannot be proven historically, Mary's presentation has an important theological purpose. It continues the impact of the feasts of the Immaculate Conception and of the birth of Mary. It emphasizes that the holiness conferred on Mary from the beginning of her life on earth continued through her early childhood and beyond.

Comment:

It is sometimes difficult for modern Westerners to appreciate a feast like this. The Eastern Church, however, was quite open to this feast and even somewhat insistent about celebrating it. Even though the feast has no basis in history, it stresses an important truth about Mary: From the beginning of her life, she was dedicated to God. She herself became a greater temple than any made by hands. God came to dwell in her in a marvelous manner and sanctified her for her unique role in God's saving work. At the same time, the magnificence of Mary enriches her children. They, too, are temples of God and sanctified in order that they might enjoy and share in God's saving work. www.americancatholic.org

Queen of the Holy Family Guild

Delicious! Scrumptious! Beautifully Wrapped!

The Queen of the Holy Family Guild's annual bake sale.

After all morning Massed on Sunday, December 4 in the Conference Room.

Shop early for the best selection

ALL proceeds are for the Altar bread and wine.

The monthly meeting of the Queen of the Holy Family Guild will be held on Thursday, December 1st, in the home of Roberta Genini at 7:00pm. Please call Sharon 439-1876 or Pat 431-5246 for directions and further information. ALL women of the parish are invited to join this delightful group of dedicated women.

BLESSED SACRAMENT

We are so very blessed to have the presence of Jesus right here everyday!!! He is located in the Adoration Chapel inside the Parish Office 24 hours per day/7 days per week. Just think, ANYTIME you want to be in the presence of Our Lord, all you have to do is come to the Adoration Chapel - He's here, waiting for you!!!

However, soon He may only be available during certain hours/times throughout the day or week. How sad would that be? We have the gift of His presence anytime, but may need to modify our hours. In order to keep our Perpetual Adoration Chapel open 24 hours per day we MUST have scheduled adorers. Someone MUST be with Him ALWAYS - He is never to be left unattended. The only requirement is your desire to sit with Him for one hour - that's it!!! Won't you answer His call and visit with Him for one hour?

Please contact Sr. Rosa at 436-0124 ext. 112 to schedule your time.

Catholic Charities Turkey Drive

On Tuesday November 22nd from 5:00am -7:30pm Catholic Charities and KSEE 24 will be hosting our 2nd Annual Turkey Drive.

During this drive, we will also be seeking cash donations. KSEE 24 has offered us 20 LIVE AIR SPOTS for donors to come on TV and make their donation. A donation of $500 or more, will secure your spot for this air time. (The donation can always be kept anonymous as well).

We are serving 47% more clients this year and are striving to continue with the programs and services we offer during these tough times; so any donation will be helpful and greatly appreciated.

*"We should not serve the poor like they were Jesus.
We should serve the poor because they are Jesus."
Mother Teresa*

Immaculate Heart Radio

(1250AM)

Did you know that St. Anthony's is the ONLY Catholic church in the Fresno area that broadcasts the Sunday Mass?

We do, every Sunday on Immaculate Heart Radio (1250AM) at 11:00am. So if you are unable to attend Mass, please tune in and listen along with us.

Right to Life

Right to Life Central California proudly presents "Let it Shine" our 23rd Annual Christmas Dinner Auction with honorary chairperson Msgr. Myron Cotta. Please join us Friday, December 2nd at 5:30pm at the Fresno Convention Center. It's the perfect place to start (and finish) your Christmas shopping! Your support helps Right to Life promote the sanctity of human life in Central California and across our nation. Tickets are just $65 per person. For more information, please call (559) 229-2229.

PRAYER FOR THE SELECTION FOR OUR NEW BISHOP

Almighty God, Send your Holy Spirit to guide those who will advise the Holy Father in the selection of the next Bishop of the Diocese of Fresno.

May he have the zeal of Saint Paul, the priestly gifts of Saint John Vianney, the wisdom of a loving father and brother, and most of all, the heart of your Son, Jesus.

We ask that the Blessed Virgin Mary intercede for us, and that Saint Therese, our patroness, join us in this prayer, which we make through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady of the Sierra Parish of Oakhurst is hosting a

Tour to Emerald Ireland, March 12 - 22, 2012

This eleven day tour of Ireland, which will include St. Patrick's Day, March 17th, will travel roundtrip from San Francisco to Dublin. We will visit Waterford, Killarney, Galway, Connemara, Our Lady of Knock, Sligo and Dublin. The fare of $2499 per person plus taxes and tips, includes all travel from San Francisco, bus travel, 4 & 5 star hotels, two meals daily, entrance fees, and full-time guide.

Please call the Parish Office at 642-3452 for more information.

San Joaquin Memorial High School is now accepting applications for January 2012 enrollment. SJM is a college preparatory Catholic high school offering smaller class sizes, high SAT scores, AP classes, Block Scheduling, 100% college-bound success rate, sports, arts programs, clubs and community service groups, all within a safe, family-oriented, religious environment. Please contact Raquel Hotz for details at 559-268-9251 or rhotz@sjmhs.org.

Catholic Charities Fights Poverty with Faith

Over 12,300 people in Fresno County live below the federal poverty line, including over 4,000 who are homeless. Catholic Charities along with the help of our parishes, Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Campaign for Human Development are fighting poverty by increasing awareness, advocating for policy changes and creating innovative solutions to help stamp out hunger. To become a part of our campaign to end poverty, contact Catholic Charities at 559-237-0851 or email klilles@ccdof.org.

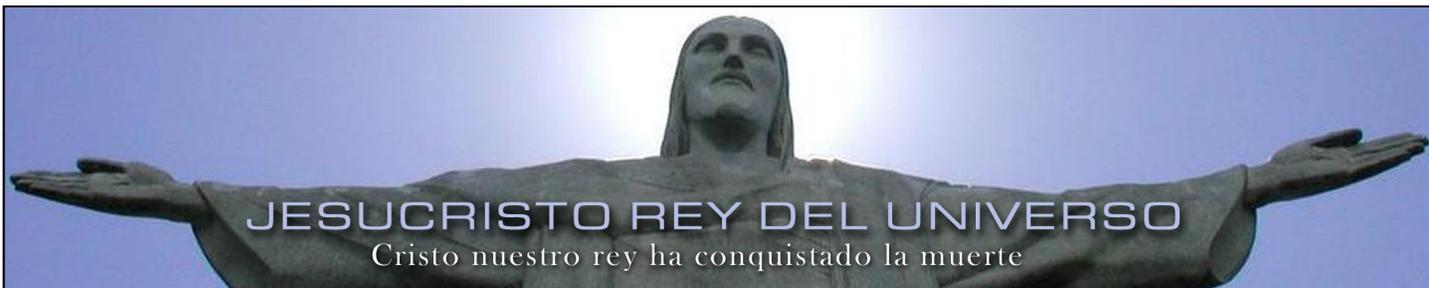

THE SHEPHERD KING

The job of shepherd and the job of king couldn't be more different from each other. Shepherds are on the lowest rung of society, kings are at the top. But God says, through the prophet Ezekiel, that the Messiah will lead in a way very different from earthly authorities who lord it over their people and cause harm with their poor leadership.

Our King takes on the job himself. Christ, like a shepherd, will give rest, seek out the lost, bring back the strayed and scattered ones. He will heal the wounded and bind up the injured. He does not delegate, but will "shepherd them rightly." We have a king who cares for us and who is not afraid to "judge between one sheep and another" (Ezekiel 34:17). © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

UN REY INIGUALABLE

Nosotros no hemos elegido a Dios como presidente. No existen referendos en la voluntad de Dios ni hay la posibilidad de anular votos. Dios, como Rey, le parece ajeno a nuestra sociedad democrática e individualista. Jesús experimentó la opresión de gobernantes tales como Herodes y Poncio Pilato, pero vinculó su estatus de rey con el servicio humilde e instruyó a sus discípulos a ser servidores. Él se humilló, se hizo humano, sufrió y murió por nosotros. El Señor de la gloria colgaba de una cruz ignominiosa para libramos del pecado y de la muerte. Él es Señor, Rey y Juez, pero el propósito de su justicia es llevarnos al arrepentimiento y a la salvación eterna. Nosotros creemos que él “de nuevo vendrá con gloria para juzgar a vivos y a muertos, y su reino no tendrá fin”. Las Escrituras nos dicen que Dios dilata la segunda venida de Cristo para darnos tiempo a arrepentirnos. Cristo nuestro Rey nos ofrece la verdadera libertad como hijos e hijas de Dios.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, El Día de Acción de Gracias no es sólo un día de preparar una comida para compartir con nuestras familias; También es un día cuando tenemos que hacer una pausa y tomar algún tiempo para dar gracias a Dios por sus muchas bendiciones. Tomando en cuenta de que tan ocupado y agitado puede ser el día de acción de gracias, una vez más, tendremos una misa, en Ingles, de vigilia de acción de gracias. Esta misa se celebrará el miércoles, 23 de noviembre a las 6:00pm. También se bendecirá el pan y el vino que será servido el día de Acción de Gracias. Monseñor Rob y Personal Atención — No habrá reuniones!

Durante la semana de Acción de Gracias (lunes 21 a viernes 25 de noviembre) no habrá clases de catecismo, reuniones o ensayos de grupos: de Jóvenes, de Biblia, de Oración, de ministerios, ect. Es tiempo de meditar, reflexionar, de asistir a misa y dar gracias y pasarla con la familia o seres queridos. Feliz semana de Acción de Gracias!

Gracias!

Gracias a todas las personas que donaron comida para las canastas de comida que se entregaron a familias campesinas este fin de semana. Gracias a su generosidad ellos podrán también tener algo que comer el Día de Acción de Gracias. Gracias a todos los voluntarios que formaron parte y ayudaron en esta campaña su actitud recalca nuestra responsabilidad al Evangelio: Porque tuve hambre, y ustedes me dieron de comer...Mateo 25:35

*Aviso para el Domingo 20 de noviembre 2011
Hoy si hay clases de:*

- CATECISMO Y DE EDUCACIÓN RELIGIOSA.
- CONFIRMACION Y REUNION DE PADRES.
- CAMINOS DE FE PARA ADULTOS.

El próximo domingo 27 de noviembre no habrá clases de catecismo, confirmación o de caminos de fe para adultos.

URGENTE!! Se Necesitan Adoradores para la Capilla de Adoración Perpetua! Te gustaría ser un/a Adorador/a y pasar una hora regularmente con Nuestro Señor... Ponte en contacto con la Hermana Tere al: 439-0124, ext, 113.

La Corresponsabilidad Vivida Ahora

Una oración a Cristo Rey tomada de la liturgia de esta fiesta:

*Dios todopoderoso y eterno, que quisiste fundar todas las cosas
en tu Hijo muy amado, Rey del universo, haz que toda creatura, liberada de la esclavitud, sirva a tu majestad y te alabe eternamente. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo.*

(Oración Colecta para Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo)
