Lent
A Sense of the Season

The word Lent means springtime. This word comes from the same root as lengthen. Daytime lengthens during Lent. The northern hemisphere turns toward the sun, the source of life, and winter turns into spring. In Hebrew, the word for repentance is the same as the word that means to turn, like the turning of the earth to the sun, like the turning of the soil before planting.
"Even now, says the Lord, turn to me." (Joel 2:12) The word sin means separation. We are called to turn from our separate selves, from our sin, to come together in community. Self-denial is the way we express our repentance. In the lengthening brightness from Ash Wednesday until Holy Thursday afternoon, our holy Lent, we turn to God as our source of life.

Self-denial is threefold, advises Matthew's gospel. We pray: "Go to your room, close your door, and pray to your Father in private." We fast: "No one must see you are fasting but your Father." We give alms: "Keep your deeds of mercy secret, and your Father who sees in secret will repay you." Through the Lenten exercise of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we spring-clean our lives, sharpen our senses, put tomorrow in its place and treasure the day at hand.

Why are there forty days in Lent? It took forty days for sinfulness to drown in the flood before a new creation could inherit the earth. It took forty years for the generation of slaves to die before the freeborn could enter the promised land. For forty days Moses and Elijah and Jesus fasted and prayed to prepare themselves for a life's work.
At the beginning of Lent the bishop calls out the names of the catechumens who seek to be baptized at Easter. Their names are written in the book of the elect, the chosen. God has chosen them, and they have chosen to turn to God. Lent is the forty days before the baptism of the catechumens. The already baptized can share the excitement and the struggles of the elect and rediscover the meaning of baptism in their own lives. During the forty days, both catechumens and the faithful journey together to the holy font.

We keep Lent together. We put aside our business-as-usual to support each other in prayer, fasting and almsgiving. We turn to God to enlighten us and purify us throughout the lengthening brightness of our holy season of Lent.

"For now is the acceptable time! Now is the day of salvation!"

MARRIAGE MATTERS. . . Couples that want to succeed at the three-legged-race that is marriage need to surrender their selfish tendencies and synchronize their wills. Pope Pius XI wrote in his encyclical on marriage that while God created the institution of marriage, it is the spouses that create their own marital relationship through their mutual surrender to each other for life. How are you doing in your three-legged race? John Bosio – Happy Together: the Catholic Blueprint for a Loving Marriage, © 2008

SPOUSE PRAYER FOR EACH OTHER (www.catholic.org)

Lord Jesus, grant that we may have a true and understanding love for each other. Grant that we may both be filled with faith and trust. Give us the grace to live with each other in peace and harmony. May we always bear with one another's weaknesses and grow from each other's strengths. Help us to forgive one another's failings and grant us patience, kindness, cheerfulness and the spirit of placing the well-being of one another ahead of self. May the love that brought us together grow and mature with each passing year. Bring us both ever closer to You through our love for each other. Let our love grow to perfection. Amen.

Scripture

- It is I, I, who wipe out, for my own sake, your offenses; your sins I remember no more. (Isaiah 43:25)
- Once I said, "O LORD, have pity on me; heal me, though I have sinned against you." (Psalm 41:5)
- For however many are the promises of God, their Yes is in him; (2 Corinthians 1:20)
- When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven." ...I say to you, rise, pick up your mat, and go home." (Mark 2:5,11)

Reflection

- Do you have something in your past that you would like to be free from but cannot leave behind?
- Is there anything that God may forgive or help you to be freed from so you are released form its hold on you?
- Have you asked to be forgiven and accepted the Lord's grace to forgive?

The Greek word for forgiveness is asphesis, which means to liberate, to release from bondage; it means remission of debt, guilt and punishment. It is used when the prison door is opened and the prisoner can go free.

We humans are called to become free, to free others, to nurture life, to look for the worth and the beauty in each and every one of us, and to make our world a beautiful garden where each person and each society can create a harvest of flowers and fruits, and so prepare the seeds of peace for tomorrow.[1] [1] Vanier, Jean, Becoming Human, Paulist Press: Mahwah, NJ, 1998, p. 135. Prayer for Ash Wednesday
February 22, 2012

Today God our Father brings us to the beginning of Lent.
We pray that in this time of salvation
he will fill us with the Holy Spirit, purify our hearts, and strengthen us in love.
Let us humbly ask him:
Lord, give us your Holy Spirit.

May we be filled and satisfied,
- by the word which you give us.
Teach us to be loving not only in great and exceptional moments,
- but above all in the ordinary events of daily life.
May we abstain from what we do not really need,
- and help our brothers and sisters in distress.
May we bear the wounds of your Son in our bodies,
- for through his body he gave us life.

SHARING THE SURPLUS

Joe and Chris Miller operate a farm near Denver, Colorado, that has been in the family since 1949. In the last sixty years many family farms have gone out of business, and the Millers have had to work hard to keep their farm viable through some very tough times. Over the years, they have grown everything from sugar beets to herbs, and they now raise over forty different kinds of vegetables to sell at local farmers' markets. For a number of years, every fall they have opened their farm to schoolchildren and some church groups to harvest their own food. But not long ago, the news media reported that the Millers got a huge surprise when they opened their fields to anyone who wanted to pick up free vegetables left over after the harvest: forty thousand people showed up! Joe Miller said they opened the farm for the free public gleaning—the ancient practice of picking up leftover food in farm fields after the harvest—after hearing reports of food being stolen from churches. The Millers had expected five thousand to ten thousand people would show up to collect free potatoes, carrots, and leeks. Instead, an estimated eleven thousand vehicles snaked around cornfields and extended more than two miles down the road. About thirty acres of the six-hundred-acre farm became a parking lot. Some people parked their cars along two nearby highways to take to the field with sacks, wagons, and barrels. The Millers' fields were picked so clean on one Saturday that their plans for a second day had to be cancelled. "To say we were overwhelmed is putting it mildly," Chris Miller told local reporters. "People obviously need food." Altogether, she said that around 600,000 pounds of produce had been gleaned from the fields in that one day.

Living Stewardship Now

Take a good look at what surpluses you are hanging on to. What is in closets or boxes you never open? Begin with one closet or one box at a time and divide the contents into what you need, what you can give away, and what you can put in the trash. Dispose appropriately. Then go on to the next one and do the same.

SEPTIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Levántate, toma tu camilla y vete a tu casa". Mc 2, 11

Sáname, Señor, porque he pecado contra ti (Salmo 41 [40]). 19 DE FEBRERO, 2012

La corresponsabilidad vivida ahora

Fíjate bien en todo lo que te sobra. ¿Qué hay en tus armarios o en esos cajones que nunca abres? Empieza por un armario o un cajón a la vez y divide su contenido en tres pilas: lo que necesitas en una, lo que vas a dar en otra y lo que vas a echar a la basura en la tercera. Puedes deshacerte de todo apropiadamente. Después haz lo mismo con el próximo armario o cajón.copyright © 2011, WLP.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

La cuaresma tiene sus raíces en la preparación para el bautismo de adultos y en el arrepentimiento de pecadores públicos. Ambas se concentran en la conversión y en especial en los tres pilares de la misma. La cuaresma nos da la oportunidad de encontrarnos de manera fuerte y vital con estos tres pilares: ayunar, ayudar y orar. Éstas son las prácticas cuaresmales que la iglesia ha ido proclamando y practicando desde tiempos antiguos. Son prácticas que los cristianos deberíamos emplear todos los días de nuestra vida, pero con mayor fervor durante la cuaresma para poder celebrar dignamente las fiestas de la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. La conversión es un proceso por el cual regresamos a participar de la vida divina que recibimos en el bautismo. Dios Padre mandó a su Hijo para salvarnos. He allí el por qué, el ayuno, la generosidad y la oración es colaborar con Dios. Dios mismo colabora con nosotros derramando su Espíritu en nuestros corazones. Con el poder del Espíritu Santo podemos practicar el ayunar, ayudar y orar de manera vital.—Fray Gilberto Cavazos. Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

La Misión Parroquial será de 7:00pm a 8:30pm que incluye la Santa Misa, comenzando el jueves, 23 hasta el sábado, 25 de febrero del 2012.
