GOALS FOR POLITICAL LIFE: CHALLENGES FOR CITIZENS, CANDIDATES, AND PUBLIC OFFICIALS

As Catholics, we are led to raise questions for political life other than “Are you better off than you were two or four years ago?” Our focus is not on party affiliation, ideology, economics, or even competence and capacity to perform duties, as important as such issues are. Rather, we focus on what protects or threatens human life and dignity.

Catholic teaching challenges voters and candidates, citizens and elected officials, to consider the moral and ethical dimensions of public policy issues. In light of ethical principles, we bishops offer the following policy goals that we hope will guide Catholics as they form their consciences and reflect on the moral dimensions of their public choices. Not all issues are equal; these ten goals address matters of different moral weight and urgency. Some involve matters of intrinsic evil that can never be supported. Others involve affirmative obligations to seek the common good. These and similar goals can help voters and candidates act on ethical principles rather than particular interests and partisan allegiances. We hope Catholics will ask candidates how they intend to help our nation pursue these important goals:

- Address the preeminent requirement to protect the weakest in our midst—innocent unborn children—by restricting and bringing to an end the destruction of unborn children through abortion.
- Keep our nation from turning to violence to address fundamental problems—a million abortions each year to deal with unwanted pregnancies, euthanasia and assisted suicide to deal with the burdens of illness and disability, the destruction of human embryos in the name of research, the use of the death penalty to combat crime, and imprudent resort to war to address international disputes.
- Define the central institution of marriage as a union between one man and one woman, and provide better support for family life morally, socially, and economically, so that our nation helps parents raise their children with respect for life, sound moral values, and an ethic of stewardship and responsibility.

- Achieve comprehensive immigration reform that secures our borders, treats immigrant workers fairly, offers an earned path to citizenship, respects the rule of law, and addresses the factors that compel people to leave their own countries.
- Help families and children overcome poverty: ensuring access to and choice in education, as well as decent work at fair, living wages and adequate assistance for the vulnerable in our nation, while also helping to overcome widespread hunger and poverty around the world, especially in the areas of development assistance, debt relief, and international trade.
- Provide health care for the growing number of people without it, while respecting human life, human dignity, and religious freedom in our health care system.
- Continue to oppose policies that reflect prejudice, hostility toward immigrants, religious bigotry, and other forms of discrimination.
- Encourage families, community groups, economic structures, and government to work together to overcome poverty, pursue the common good, and care for creation, with full respect for religious groups and their right to address social needs in accord with their basic moral convictions.
- Establish and comply with moral limits on the use of military force—examining for what purposes it may be used, under what authority, and at what human cost—and work for a “responsible transition” to end the war in Iraq.
- Join with others around the world to pursue peace, protect human rights and religious liberty, and advance economic justice and care for creation.

MARRIAGE MATTERS

During the Mass Christ gives himself fully to us: "Take this...and eat." The Eucharistic ritual reminds us that, to follow Christ's example, we must be willing to give and to make sacrifices for the good of our marital relationship. How good are you at making compromises to accommodate your spouse? John Bosio – Happy Together: the Catholic Blueprint for a Loving Marriage, © 2008

Prayer When You Need Patience

Forgive me, Dear God,

If today I have been impatient, especially with my spouse.

If today I have made anyone feel a nuisance.

If today I did not show understanding for others' mistakes.

If today there were times when I was too head strong, too sure I was right.

If today I have ridden rough shod over the feelings of someone else.

If today I have been unapproachable to talk to, difficult to work with, critical of others, harsh and quick in my judgment.

I cannot undo what I have done, but help me tomorrow to be more loving and kind, as You are to me.

Amen.

Father, you're close to people whose hearts are breaking, those who are discouraged and have given up hope. May You who see their troubles and grief respond when they cry out. When they're hurting, help them find their joy in You, for ...Your joy will be their strength. Help them to trust You as their God of hope. Fill them with Your joy, peace, and hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer Spaces and Times

No matter the type or types of prayer you practice, it is important to deliberately schedule a time and place to pray each day. Consider morning prayers (a Christian song, with petitions for friends and people you have promised to pray for), a walk at lunch each day to quietly meditate on a scriptural quote, or time before bed to read quietly or pray some favorite prayers. A prayer space may be a corner of the breakfast table with a prayer book; rosary beads kept in a car ashtray; a candle, icon, or cross on a dresser near your bed; or a favorite chapel you can walk to or drive past each day. Remember, prayer is a discipline. It takes time to make it part of your daily routine. But the rewards are eternal.

Reflection

- The Lord's providence functions on needs not merely our wants.
- God offers us far more than physical fulfillment in life; His plan is spiritual fulfillment. Too often we pray for what we want but stop short of praying for what we really need.
- Calling upon God is a great compliment and true act of faith.

Life Teen is looking for a few good men and women who are willing to give their time to volunteer with our High School teens. Call Sharon Christison at 439-0124 x111 for more information.

For the Ride Home

Seventeenth Sunday Ordinary Time
July 29, 2012

SCRIPTURE

- "They shall eat and there shall be some left over." (2 Kings 4:43)
- The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season; (Psalm 145:15)
- live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, (Ephesians 4:1-3)
- Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. (John 6:11)

REFLECTION

- Is there scarcity in the Body of Christ?
- Is there a limit to grace or blessings received from God?
- Are sacraments freely given and received?
- What does God ask and then empower you to do?

God reveals himself where there is anyone who respects life, who desires the light, who seeks to love. Every time you open yourself to life, every time you act the truth, every time you love, God is there in your action. It is if you were creating your God. By doing things as Jesus would do them, as God would do them you free God from the veils of invisibility and make him visible on man's journey. (Carlo Carretto)¹

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

July 29, 2012

O God, protector of those who hope in you, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy, bestow in abundance your mercy upon us and grant that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

In what ways can I use the good things of this world without clinging to them?

BREAD OF HEAVEN

Jesus' feeding of a huge crowd in today's Gospel is prefigured in the story of the prophet Elisha in the first reading. The land has been stricken with famine. Elisha believes that God will provide, and when Elisha is given twenty barley loaves and some grain he refuses to take any for himself and offers it to a small crowd.

Everyone eats and some is left over. Jesus, we are told, feeds thousands of hungry people with just five small loaves and two fish. The crowd is famished, not just for ordinary food, but also for God's salvation.

The Evangelist tells us that everyone ate their fill, and when the disciples gathered up the leftovers they filled twelve baskets. This is the only one of Jesus' miracles described by all four Gospel writers. The actions of Jesus in taking the bread, giving thanks, blessing the bread, and distributing it remind us of what we share at every celebration of Mass. Jesus' actions are reflected in the actions of the priest as we are fed the bread of life to strengthen us on our daily journey. Elisha trusted that God would provide, and God did.

When Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes, God provided not just enough, but overflowing abundance. And in the Eucharist, Christ gives himself as food, totally and completely. If God feeds us beyond all our expectations, then we in turn must feed other people. Feeding people as they come to our parish creates an atmosphere of welcome. Feeding poor people helps them stop worrying where their next meal will come from. Feeding those in the crisis of natural disaster keeps them alive. Feeding people is God's work, and it is our work, too.

DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU!

Recently we have been experiencing an increase in vandalism and theft in the surrounding neighborhood and in our own parking lot. PLEASE do NOT leave ANYTHING in your vehicle, what may seem like an incidental item to you may appear valuable to someone else. Example: A three ring notebook was taken because they thought it was a laptop!

Ladies, PLEASE consider leaving your purses at home if you do not want to take them to Mass with you, do NOT leave them under the seat thinking it would be "safe". It only takes seconds before someone has access to all your personal possessions - even if they are in the trunk. These criminals are watching and waiting for someone to leave something, anything.

PLEASE DO NOT RISK IT!

Please call the police if you witness vandalism or suspicious activity, you may also contact Turner Security at 486-3466.

Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty

O God our Creator,
Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty.

Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith. Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome—

for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us - this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

COME AND SEE! A WELCOME TO CHRISTIANS IN COMMERCE FOR WOMEN

Please join us for our Fresno Chapter Launch on Saturday, August 11, 2012 from 9am – 12pm at St. Anthony of Padua, Community Center, Room 24.

Christians in Commerce was created in 1983 as an ecumenical organization. The Fresno Men's Chapter has been very successful for the past 25+ years.

Our purpose is to transform where we work, live and/or volunteer into places where the love and power of Christ are present and goods and services are produced with excellence. As Christians we have a unique opportunity to join together to bring real change to our workplaces and our homes. Experience suggests that regular contact with other committed Christians is necessary to provide the support, encouragement and growth to continue in the life to which God has called us. Please help us launch our new Fresno Women's Chapter. Bring your non-catholic friends.

We are looking for women with a music ministry who can lead us in guitar or piano.

To reserve your spot and/or questions please contact: Lucy U. Vasquez (559-355-7403) or lucyuvazquez@gmail.com.

Come and join the Knights of Columbus every first Saturday of the month directly after the 8:00am Mass, reflecting on the Rosary for Life. This Rosary is the Scriptural Rosary selecting one of the mysteries each month. Each mystery draws on exact bible passages corresponding to each mystery. Come pray and offer this rosary in union with our blessed mother to battle abortion.

Bethlehem Catholic Mission

July 28 & 29, 2012

Members of the "Bethlehem Catholic Mission" will be here once again to sell their handmade olivewood crafts to raise money to help Catholic families in Bethlehem.

Latest statistics shows that the number of Catholics in the Holy Land is dropping dramatically. The Catholic population was around 15% before 1967 but now it is less than 1.3%! This reduction is due to the non-stop violence in the region, causing many Catholics to flee the country. The war is hurting the tourism industry and those families have greatly lost a majority of their income due to the inability to sell their crafts.

The "mission" is intended to help the Christian Community to exercise their right of existence and to carry proudly their Christian Identity - thereby protecting their faith.

Life in the Spirit Seminar

August 3 - 4, 2012

Through a series of talks, worship, Scripture teachings, song and personal testimonies, participants explore faith topics, including the basic message of salvation, a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, as well as the potential and the power of the Holy Spirit.

For more information please call Christy Villas at 271-1246.

A love offering will be taken.

COMMUNION SONG

The simple human activities of sharing in one loaf and one cup at Sunday Eucharist clearly express our relationship with each other and with the Lord: We are one bread, one body. Our unity is evidenced not only in the one loaf and the one cup. We share a common posture of standing throughout the communion rite. Each of us is addressed with the same words, "The body of Christ. The blood of Christ." And we join our voices in psalms and hymns of praise.

The power of song to unite a group of people is well known. School songs, national anthems and old favorites sung around a campfire all serve to confirm common identity and strengthen the bond among those who are present. Our communion song, too, expresses outwardly our inward union with each other and the Lord. Because communion is a time of procession to the table of the Lord, communion songs are by definition processional songs. And processions need music - music that moves our feet and our hearts.

Some might protest that they can't walk and chew gum at the same time, so how can they be expected to walk in procession, hold a book and sing. Ideally, at the time of communion, the assembly joins in with a simple repeated refrain that does not require a worship aid, freeing our hands and our eyes from the printed page. Others complain that singing during communion distracts them from prayer. The moment of communion is, of course, an intensely personal time but in Catholic liturgy, it is not a private time. Allowing for a generous time of silence after communion can meet this need for silent prayer. Liturgy as the public prayer of the church demands of us a disciplined surrender of our individual lives to our common life in Christ. Just as those who distribute the bread and the cup minister to us, we minister to each other when we join in singing the communion song. Thus we taste and see and hear the goodness of the Lord.

DOMINGO 17 DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Jesús da de comer a cinco mil hombres con cinco panes de cebada y dos pescados (Juan 6:1-15).

Visítanos en nuestra pagina de Internet www.stanthonyfresno.org

29 DE JULIO, 2012

PAN DEL CIELO

Jesús da de comer a millares de personas con cinco panes y dos peces. Jesús toma el pan, da gracias, bendice el pan y lo distribuye. Después que la multitud se sacia sobran doce cestas llenas. Ésas son las mismas acciones del sacerdote hoy para que nos alimentemos con el pan de vida: (la Eucaristía). Eliseo confió en que Dios proveería y Dios así lo hizo. Dios verdaderamente provee con una abundancia desbordante. Dios se nos da como alimento de una manera total y completa. Nosotros a la vez debemos alimentar a los demás. “Alimentar” a las personas, dar de comer a los pobres los ayuda a no tener que preocuparse por su próxima comida. Ofrecer alimentos a las víctimas de desastres naturales los ayuda a sobrevivir. Alimentar a las personas es obra de Dios y también nuestra.
